

HOLY HILL ART FESTIVAL

Saturday, September 15, 2012
Hubertus, WI

Join the 7,000-10,000 people who attend the Holy Hill Art Festival annually. Last year, 230 artists and craftsmen presented their work in the beautifully natural setting of Holy Hill. Door prizes are selected from fair entries, along with plenty of food and entertainment.

After perusing the many displays and maybe buying some items for yourself or a loved one, we'll travel over to the Fox and Hounds restaurant for a delicious lunch. Built in 1845, Fox and Hounds began as a one-room cabin, used as a home to the first clerk of Washington County. Nearly 90 years later, Ray Wolf, an avid horseman, restored the cabin, added a basement bar and opened it to fellow equestrians, eventually opening it as a restaurant in 1933.
