

160th Community Voting Contest

This contest is being held in celebration of First Bank Financial Centre's 160th anniversary. FBFC will highlight three new nonprofits, in a community we reside in, each month ,for 10 months. $1,600 will be donated to the top voted upon nonprofit at the months end.

Voting:

No purchase necessary to vote. By submitting your vote, each entrant agrees to the official rules. Individuals will enter their vote for their charity organization of choice on the FBFC Anniversary page.

Only one entry per day per individual participating within this contest. Use of multiple accounts by the same individual to enter is prohibited. FBFC in its solitary judgment reserves the right to disqualify any individual that it finds to be tampering with the entry process, the operation or is otherwise in violation of these rules.

Votes received from an automated voter or other automatic device will not be counted.

Eligibility:

Odds of winning will be based on the number of votes.

General:

If for any reason the contest is not capable of running as planned, FBFC reserves the right to cancel, terminate, modify, or suspend the voting contest and drawing. In such event, no prize will be awarded. FBFC also reserves the right to change the rules at any time without notice.

Charity Selection and Notification:

FBFC will announce the winning charity at the end of each month on the First Bank Financial Centre (FBFC) Anniversary page, as well as on the FBFC Facebook page within 3 days of the winner determination date.

Inability to contact the winning charity within 10 days after winner has been announced may result in selection of an alternate charity.

Prize:
